GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

Disclaimer: I (we), the undersigned, do hereby agree to abide by all the guidelines listed below of the private club known as B&G. I (we) also know that should I (we) not comply with the rules and regulations listed below, my (our) membership may be revoked and my (our) application fee will be forfeited without refund or I (we) may be asked to leave the event by the host.

Please check off each section.

- Whatever alcoholic beverages I (we) bring to a B&G sponsored function is of my (our) free will and I (we) will not hold the host, co-hosts, B&G or its members responsible for any actions or incidences which may result from my (our) drinking. Improper behavior due to excessive drinking may result in I (our) being asked to leave and/or membership revocation.
- The host will provide plastic bags for members to store their clothing and/or personal belongings. However, the host or the club will not be responsible in the unlikely event any items are stolen, lost or damaged and any member found stealing any other member's personal belongings will be subjected to appropriate action as described in the disclaimer above.
- Any member's action that results in damages to the host's home or his personal property is the responsibility of that member and not the club, and appropriate action will be taken as described in the disclaimer above.
- No illegal drugs or any others substances will be allowed at any B&G function. Appropriate action will be taken as described in the disclaimer above.
- No overt sexual behavior will be tolerated during the scheduled B&G event, however playful groping or touching, hugging or kissing by mutual consent are allowed. Appropriate action will be taken as described in the disclaimer above for violations. With the host's consent, however, members can stay beyond the scheduled end time and the host's rules would apply – this information will be in the event's email from the club. The annual Rapsallion and Skintastic events will be considered special club events and special rules will be posted at these events and activities will closely monitored by our staff.
- Photography is allowed only with the prior consent of all potential photographic subjects, including men in the background. The B&G Steering Committee Member must announce beforehand his intended use, i.e., the upload to the B&G web site and/or posting to our private B&G Yahoo club. Any member taking pictures without following the above guidelines will be subject to disciplinary action as described in the above disclaimer.
- I (we) hereby assume any and all risks of injury, including death, to my (our) person(s) and property, arising from the use of provided facilities and equipment and participation in activities of B&G. I (we) further release and hold harmless for myself (ourselves) and heirs, administrators, executors, and the organizers of B&G, its members, officers, steering committee and agents from any and all liability of any and every kind and nature whatsoever, whether arising out of negligence or otherwise, for any injuries including death and loss or damage including theft, loss, negligence, fire or other act.

8. We are a men's only nudist group, and men of any sexual orientation or marital status are welcomed.

I have read the above rules and regulations of the club and will abide by them: Your Initials _____

The following guidelines and information about our events are for general information and need not be initialed.

1. A small admission cost will be charged by the host for each house event with the intent of covering the cost of the host's food and beverages and any related party expenses. A separate cover charge will be required for our Springfield bar events to cover the club's food, staff tips and entertainment expenses.
2. Every member at an event will be naked. Those who may have temporary health problems are exempted from this rule and may be partially dressed. Footwear is encouraged at house parties, but is mandatory at our Rapscaillon and Skin-tastic bar events. For health reasons, the host of the event may elect to designate a smoking area in a private area outside his home or not allow it at all.
3. Reservations to any event cannot be made before the official email announcement is sent to the members by the Steering Committee.
4. Each member is allowed to bring one guest to a house event (if the host has room) and his guest must agree to follow all B&G rules, as well as to display basic courtesy. That guest must join the club at that event or afterwards to attend any future house events. This rule does not apply to the host. Another exception is our Rapscaillon and Skin-tastic bar events where an unlimited number of guests are allowed.
5. The host will obtain a membership list from the club prior to the date of his event to ensure only members and their guests are attending.
6. The club's success is measured by its members' ability to host house parties. If you are in a position to host, you are encouraged to do so.
7. Each member must have a valid email address to receive B&G notices. There is no other method of event notification and there are no post office mailings. Your address is kept confidential and would only be used if the club had no other way to notify you (e.g. a bouncing email address.) Your phone number is required in case of a very late cancellation of an event or if we cannot reach you by email.
8. You are encouraged to promote the club and solicit new members by directing them to our website www.bandgofct.org or have them contact us by email at bandgct@gmail.com
